Care Page Update

Oct 14th: Okay, great news the breathing tube is out, Sally has an oxygen mask on until tests can establish her levels of blood oxygen are good and then she will get the little nasal thingy again. She seems so much more comfortable now. She is moving her arms and legs easily and has smiled a lot since it came out. Charles is resting easier now as well, they are smooching again. The swelling in her eye is gone and it is no longer bloodshot. This is a great day! Just a few more days, God willing, in this Intensive Care Unit! There is a new room ready for us once we've reached the next phase of recovery (once the high risk on vasospasm has passed)

ROTARY FOUR WAY TEST

- 1) Is it the truth?
- 2) Is it fair to all concerned?
- 3) Will it build goodwill and better friendships?
- 4) Will it be beneficial to all concerned?

Do You Know the ABCs of Rotary? By Cliff Dochterman, Past Rotary International President

Vocational Service

Vocational Service is the second Avenue of Service. No aspect of Rotary is more closely related to each member than a personal commitment to represent one's vocation or occupation to fellow Rotarians, and to exemplify the characteristics of high ethical standards and the dignity of work. Programs of vocational service are those that seek to improve business relations while improving the quality of trades, industry, commerce, and the professions. Rotarians understand that each person makes a valuable contribution to a better society through daily activities in a business or profession.

Vocational Service is frequently demonstrated by offering young people career guidance, occupational information, and assistance in making vocational choices. Some clubs sponsor high school career conferences. Many recognize the dignity of employment by honoring exemplary service of individuals working in their communities. The 4-Way Test and other ethical and laudable business philosophies are often promoted among young people entering the world of work. Vocational talks and discussion of business issues are also typical Vocational Service programs at most clubs.

Regardless of the ways in which Vocational Service is expressed, it is the banner by which Rotarians "recognize the worthiness of all useful occupations" and demonstrate a commitment to "high ethical standards in all businesses and professions." That's why the second Avenue of Service is fundamental to every Rotary club.
